When the General Assembly approves a new member, it will be placed in one of the three Groups by resolution of the Executive Board, taking into account the principles of equality and balance between the three groups of Panam Sports.

15.11. With the purpose of providing an adequate and equitable representation of the three (3) Groups hereinbefore mentioned in the preceding paragraph, the election of the Executive Board members shall be carried out in the following manner and sequence:

15.11.1. The President of Panam Sports shall be elected, regardless of the Group that he or she belongs to by means of a general election of the Members of Panam Sports participating at the General Assembly. The successful candidate must receive a majority of the votes cast by the Members of Panam Sports present at the General Assembly. If there are more than two candidates for the position of President and none of them receives the required number of votes on the first ballot, the candidate who receives the least number of votes shall be dropped from the ballot and there shall be such successive ballots as may be required and held in the same manner until a candidate is elected.

15.11.2. Likewise, the election of the Vice Presidents of each Group will then take place. The Members of Panam Sports of each Group, through exclusive voting of the Members of Panam Sports from each respective Group meeting privately, will elect its Panam Sports Vice President, without considering his or her numerical order, such that one Vice President is elected by each of the three Groups. The candidate elected for the position of Vice-President of each Group must receive a majority of the votes cast by the Members of Panam Sports from that Group. If there are more than two candidates for the position of Vice President from a Group and none of them receives a majority of votes cast on the first ballot, the candidate of the respective Group who receives the least number of votes shall be dropped from the ballot and there shall be such successive ballots as may be required and held in the same manner until a candidate is elected.

15.11.3. Next, each Group shall elect its three Members of the Executive Board in addition to its just elected Panam Sports Vice President. The Members of Panam Sports of each Group, through exclusive voting of the Members of Panam Sports from each respective Group meeting privately will elect three Members of the Executive Board such that three members are elected by each of the three Groups in addition to each Group's Panam Sports Vice President. If there are only three candidates nominated in a Group they will be automatically elected. If there are more than three candidates nominated, there shall be an election in which a candidate must receive a majority of the votes cast by the Members of Panam Sports from that Group. If on the first ballot there are less than three candidates who receive a majority of the votes cast, the candidate of the respective Group who receives the least number of votes shall be dropped from the ballot and there shall be such successive ballots as may be required and held in the same manner until three candidates are elected. However, in the case that eliminating the candidate who receives the least number of votes on a ballot will result in only one candidate being on the next ballot, the candidate who receives the least number of votes shall not be dropped from the next ballot.

15.11.4. In the election of their Vice President and three Members of the Executive Board, each Group must elect at least one woman.

15.11.5. Once the Vice Presidents and Members of the Executive Board from each Group have been declared elected in the manner described herein, all of the Members of Panam Sports at the General Assembly will vote to determine who will become the First, Second and Third Vice-Presidents in that order of election. If there is only one candidate nominated for First or Second Vice President he or she will be automatically elected. If two or more candidates are nominated for the position of First or Second Vice President, and none of them receives the required number of votes on the first ballot, the candidate who receives the least number of votes shall be dropped from the ballot and there shall be such successive ballots as may be required and held in the same manner until a candidate is elected. The successful candidate must receive a majority of the votes cast by the Members of Panam Sports present at the General Assembly. The Vice President not elected as First or Second Vice President, shall be Third Vice President.

15.11.6. In any of the elections provided for in this Article, if there is a tie for the least number of votes and a candidate is to be dropped from the ballot, a runoff vote shall be held to determine which candidate is to be dropped from the ballot in which case the candidate with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the ballot.

15.11.7. Finally, the Members of Panam Sports present at the General Assembly shall ratify the appointment of the Secretary General and the Treasurer who have been proposed by the elected President of Panam Sports. In order to be ratified, each of the Secretary General and Treasurer in their respective ratifications must receive a majority of the votes cast.

In case the Secretary General and Treasurer proposed by the President do not receive a majority of the votes cast by the General Assembly, the President shall propose new candidates depending on the case, until the indicated percentage of votes is attained by a proposed candidate.

15.12. The President of the Athletes Commission must have competed at a Pan American Games and/or an Olympic Games in a sport on the program of the Olympic Games at the time of his or her election as President, and he or she must be elected to the Panam Sports Athletes Commission at a Pan American Games and elected to be President of the Commission in accordance with regulations in that regard established by the Executive Board.

15.13. The President of ACODEPA shall be elected at a duly constituted ACODEPA general meeting of its Pan American Sport Confederation members by a majority vote of the Sport Confederation members of ACODEPA that represent sports, at the time of the election, that are on the program of the next Olympic Games combined with the non-Olympic sports that are eligible to be included on the program of the Pan American Games.
